- Director, New Mexico Oil and Gas Association (NMOGA)
- Member, American Petroleum Institute (API)
- Member, Greater Houston Partnership Economic Committee
- Member, North Dakota Petroleum Council
- Member, Petroleum Alliance

He is the immediate past Chairman of the Texas Pipeline Association, and directs Targa's state and federal political action committees.

Civic & Community Involvement

Beyond his professional work, Mr. DiCosimo has been an active civic leader in the Houston area. He serves as Trustee on the board of the Houston Maritime Center and Museum. He served as Chairman of the Sugar Land Tax Increment Reinvestment Zone (TIRZ) No. One, as a past Director of PERC (the Propane Education and Research Council), and as Executive Director of the Coalition for a Fair and Open Port. He is a founding member of St. Laurence Catholic Church and a founding school board member of St. Laurence Catholic School in Sugar Land, Texas.

Education & Early Career

Mr. DiCosimo graduated with honors from West Texas A&M University with a B.S. in Public Administration and pursued post-graduate studies at the University of Houston. He launched his energy career with Union Oil of California.

Mr. DiCosimo and his wife Francine, who will celebrate their 42nd wedding anniversary this year, reside in Houston with their three adult children. The family attends St. Theresa Catholic Church.
